POLICE ALFAS

Following the recent discussion in Club News regards the Police-liveried Alfetta and Alfasud, I have received the following email and photo of an Alfa 75 2.0 TS in a similar guise. I remember this photo being printed in the AROC magazine back in what, going on the 'E' registration prefix on the car, was probably 1987 and the 'KP' indicating a Kent registration office. Being somewhat of an anorak I also believe the car has been photographed on a bridge over the A2 near Dover which would equate as Alfa Romeo's were being imported and given their pre-delivery inspection at TKM in Poulton Close, Dover at that time. Maybe others out there know more about this scenario?

Stuart, Happy New Year! Hope you had a good time and a good break.

I was very interested to see the response regarding the UK police Alfes in the magazine, and am glad we asked. Anyway, I've also dug out a 75 now!

AROC Breakdown now rescues more cars for less

To help members save even more on breakdown cover AROC Insurance has launched a multi-car version of its successful UK Breakdown product.

Comprehensive cover for a single vehicle currently costs just £59.50 but, with new additions of two or three-car cover for only £109 and £128 respectively, there's now even more reason to choose AROC Breakdown.

And, especially with classic car drivers in mind, they have enhanced the cover with a very welcome twist:

On the 1-car and 2-car versions you have the option to add a classic car FREE of charge. So you can now arrange cover for 1 everyday car and a classic for the same price as one car on its own, or get two cars and a classic for just £109.

If you have other combinations of vehicles they can arrange cover for those too, using these products as the building blocks.

AROC Breakdown provides HomeStart, Roadside Assistance, Recovery, Onward Travel, Overnight Stay, Hire Car, Relief Driver and Message Relay. The policy also includes assistance for scenarios that are normally excluded. These FREE extras are Running out of Fuel, Flat Batteries, Lost/Broken Keys and Accidental Tyre Damage.

To arrange AROC Breakdown Cover please call AROC Insurance FREE on 0800 008 6687 and follow the 'Car Insurance' options.
